

PROCLAMATION

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

Middletown Day 2008 September 27, 2008

WHEREAS: Middletown Township is a 42-square mile community that some 68,000 neighbors call home, and

WHEREAS: Middletown Township is a unique collection of neighborhoods, each with its own geographic flavor and historic personality. Together, we form a dynamic community with a strong volunteer spirit, and

WHEREAS: Middletown Township began to hold an annual fall festival over a decade ago to offer residents the opportunity to meet friends and neighbors from Middletown Village, Leonardo, River Plaza, Lincroft and everywhere in-between, and

WHEREAS: Middletown Day has blossomed into an exciting day dedicated to family fun. The festival is attended by more than 10,000 people annually. The day includes free concerts, a classic car show, a craft fair and flea market, carnival games, a petting zoo and hayrides, demonstrations by firefighters and first aiders, activities, a food court, and many exhibits highlighting township facilities and services, and

WHEREAS: Middletown Day 2008 will be held on Saturday, September 27, 2008 from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. on the Great Lawn at Croydon Hall.

NOW

THEREFORE: Be it proclaimed that I, Mayor Gerard P. Scharfenberger and the Middletown Township Committee, do hereby proclaim September 27, 2008 as Middletown Day. We encourage all our residents to celebrate Middletown on this special day.

Mayor Gerard P. Scharfenberger, Ph.D.
