

PROCLAMATION

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

Days of Remembrance

Sunday, April 19 through Sunday, April 26, 2009

“Never Again: What You Do Matters”

- WHEREAS: The Holocaust was the state-sponsored, systematic persecution and annihilation of European Jewry by Nazi Germany and its collaborators between 1933 and 1945. Jews were the primary victims – six million were murdered; Gypsies, the handicapped, and Poles were also targeted for destruction or decimation for racial, ethnic, or national reasons. Millions more, including homosexuals, Jehovah’s Witnesses, Soviet prisoners of war and political dissidents, also suffered grievous oppression and death under Nazi tyranny, and
- WHEREAS: The history of the Holocaust offers an opportunity to reflect on the moral responsibilities of individuals, societies, and governments; and
- WHEREAS: We, the people of the Township of Middletown, should always remember the terrible events of the Holocaust and remain vigilant against hatred, persecution, and tyranny, and
- WHEREAS: We, the people of the Township of Middletown, should actively rededicate ourselves to the principles of individual freedom in a just society; and
- WHEREAS: The Days of Remembrance have been set aside for the people of the Township of Middletown to remember the victims of the Holocaust as well as to reflect on the need for respect of all people; and
- WHEREAS: Pursuant to an Act of Congress (Public Law 96-388, October 7, 1980) the United States Holocaust Memorial Council designates the Days of Remembrance of the Victims of the Holocaust to be Sunday, April 19 through Sunday, April 26, 2009 including the Day of Remembrance known as Yom Hashoah, April 21; now
- THEREFORE: I, Mayor Pamela M. Brightbill, and the Middletown Township Committee do hereby proclaim on April 20, 2009 that the week of Sunday, April 19 through Sunday, April 26, 2009 as Days of Remembrance in memory of the victims of the Holocaust, and in honor of the survivors, as well as the rescuers and liberators, and further proclaim that we, as citizens of the Township of Middletown, should strive to overcome intolerance and indifference through learning and remembrance.
